

IOWA LINCOLN HIGHWAY ASSOCIATION
MOTOR TOUR UPDATE
APRIL 2009

A group dinner is being planned for the Ox Yoke Inn in Amana, IA for the evening of Saturday August 29. A two entrée meal served family style with potatoes, gravy, vegetable, sauerkraut, two salads and bread. Also includes coffee, tea, milk, or soft drinks and choice of pie for $22.00 per person. We need to let them know how many people will be attending and collect for the dinner in advance. If you are interested, please let me know. We have until August 25 to give them a count on how many people we plan to attend. Please let me know if you are planning to attend. Contact Jeff at jefflaf@peoplepc.com or by phone at 563-349-3047.

We are planning a pre-tour event on Thursday August 27, 2009 the day before the tour officially kicks off. This tour will begin at noon meeting at the Iowa Welcome Center just east of Missouri Valley. From there we will head to the Desoto Bend Visitor Center to tour the facility. Afterwards we will head down the old Lincoln Highway to Crescent to visit the Loess Hills Winery and then to Don Willard's Lincoln Highway Garage to view his variety of classic vehicles. If time permits on the way back to Missouri Valley, we'll stop at the Hitchcock Nature Center Visitors Center. There is a fee of $3.00 per person to enter the DeSoto Bend Wildlife Refuge and Visitor Center. Early registration will be from 6:00-8:00 PM at the Days Inn Motel in Missouri Valley.

A dinner on Friday evening August 28 is being planned in Boone. More details will follow on future updates.
