

Kickoff Celebration for the Lincoln Highway Centennial in Indianapolis!

Sept. 21-22, 2012

Experience the place where it all began...Inspired by Hoosier Visionary Carl G. Fisher.

Fri., Sept. 21st. : Tours include Carl Fisher and James Allison Estates at Marian University, A visit to Crownhill Cemetery to auto industrialist gravesites, A Tour of the Stutz Building. Optional IMAX film on historic roads in Indiana in the evening at the Indiana State Museum, and book signing by Indiana auto historians/historic roads authors.

Sat., Sept. 22nd. : Indiana Auto Pioneer Tour interpreted by auto historian Dennis Horvath, a historic recreation of the luncheon where Carl G. Fisher announced his vision for America's first transcontinental road, Jeff Kuehl as Carl G. Fisher, The Father of the Lincoln Highway, and a unique Behind-the-Scenes Tour of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway—built by Carl G. Fisher and three business partners.

Don't miss this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity! Register Today!

Early bird discounts may apply.

*Share the Road!
Explore! Have fun with those who are liked minded and who enjoy traveling America's two-lane roads.
Discover Indiana's auto-making and road-building heritage!*

*Need more Information?
See the event registration form, visit www.IndianaLincolnHighway.org, or call 574-210-6278.
Sponsored by the Indiana Lincoln Highway Association*